Discussion Prompts

About the film:

- The residents in the block of flats can all see each other, but how much do you think they really know each other?
- Why does one resident start playing the saxophone?
- How do the other residents feel when they first hear the music? How does this change as the film progresses?

Beyond the film:

- Is it possible to feel isolated even when living in a busy city?
- What other activities might help to bring people in a community together?
